Not a man as to its radicalism.

Democracy.

The editor of the Louisville Journal labor from day to day, with a zeal and pertinaelty orthy of a better cause, to prove the sminity of his bogus Union Democratic party with the Democracy of the Northern States. He is constrained to do this because the few hundreds of Federal office-holders, contractors, and imon Pure Abolitionists, of the Cassins M Clay and Green Adams school, who are the active supporters and organizers of his party are powerless at the polls in Kentucky, unless they can inveigle into their support voters who are, heart and sonl, Democrats, and unompromisingly anti-Aholitlonists. The Journal's party are sure enough of the votes of all the men in the State who have received, or hold, or are seeking civil office from the Administration they are equally secure in all the votes of Govrnment contractors; and they are no less positively certain of all the votes of the Abolition element in the Slate of which Casslus M. Clay, Green Adams and - Benton, may be called the representative men.

These initiated classes understand the party necessity which renders it indispensable that they should yield their hostility to the Demoeratic party so far as to call themselves Union DEMOCRATS. It would need no argument to prove to Northern Democrats that a party can have no claim to their fellowship which com nands the votes of all the adherents, appoint ces, employees, hangers-on, blood-anekers and entractors of the Lincoln Administration. They know too well the character of sleep ees and unscrupnlous war, waged by this class of men npon everything and everybody savoring of Democracy, in the States where they have numbers enough to give them confi-

We hope our readers and all the Judges of elections will take notice of the law of this State which we publish below-Revised Stat utes, vol. 1:

CHAPTER 32, ARTICLE 12, SECTION 8TH. Any Judge, Sheriff or Cierk who shall re-Any Judge, Sheriff or Clerk who shall re-ceive or assent to receive or records a vote at an election at any other time or place than that lawfully appointed, and any Julge or Sheriff who shall knowingly or unlawfully re-ceive the vote of any other than a qualified voter, or so reluse to receive the vote of a qualified voter, shall, for every such offense, be imprisoned from one to six months, or fued from fifty to five hundred dollars, forfeit any affice he then holds, and be disqualified from ever helding any office.

The Constitution of this State fixes the nalification of voters. Any citizen twentyone years of age, who has resided in the State two years, or in the county one year, and sixty days in the precinct, shall be a voter.

There is no power anywhere hut in a State Convention, called according to the Constitu ion, to add anything to these qualifications of take auything away. Judges will notice the enalty for refusing a voter with these qualifi By an act of the Legislature the Judges may qualifications used in the Constitution The reader will see au order ln onr pa per this morning, by General Burnside, putting the State under martial law during the election. It assumes that a rald is made into this State to prevent loyal men from voting. Of course, if there be any such attempt, the military ought to take care of the rebels. whether it he election times or not. We do not understand the order as interfering with the voting according to law. The Governor has issued a proclamation, with the law and the oath that a man may be required to take, and, we presume, that is the meaning of this order. No test of loyally can be applied to a voter outside of the law of the State. As far as the military protect the judges in applying the law of the State, it will do no harm. We do not admit bowerer, that martial law can be applied to this State in the present circum stane is The civil law is ample to protect the right of snifrage.

The Journal, frightened for the success of its candidate in this district, devotes a column to the subject. In its defense of Mr. Mallory, who says hold!y that he refused to onscription-first, because it was unconstitulional, and next because it was cruel-it is characteristically Inconsistent. Its attack on Mr. Wolfe is useless. The people know that when the issue eame between Constitution and ro Constitution Mr. Wolfe boldly tock the conservative side. Since doing so he has been arbitrarily arrested by a petty Provest Marsbal, without anthority. If the people of this district are what we take them to be, they will resent deeply this interference with the right of election. It is their duty to condemn this gross attack upon their liberties, and we -e much mistaken if they will not resent it.

The Democrat says 'no one will pretend to assert that, in the eye of the law, it is a crime to vote with any party." The "eye of the law" isn't always as keen-sighted as the eye of truth; and, in the last-mentioned eye, it is a crime, a crime of deepest dye, to vote with a party seeking to betray and over: bra the republic .- [Journal.

At last we have got a confession from you that your miscrable faction is sailing under false colors, and that you do not intend to regard the laws of this State which you so solemuly, in your 18th of March convention, oled zed vourselves to maintain at all hezirds. With this example of that truth which you rate so highly before us, we can readily belleve that you esteem it so valuable you never waste any of it in public political [ledges to your fellow eitizens.

Mr. Wickliff: says he is 75 years old Ve don't know why he stays here so long.

The Journal does not understand why Gov. Wickliffe is still alive. Doubtless, If wlshing could kill that glorious old Democrat, he would have a short lease of life. But we can tell the editor, who is so anxious that he should he removed from the way of his party, that his noble life has been extended that he might, as Chief Exceutive of Kentucky, see her laws enforced, her citizens protected, and lend his powerful influence, as the last of the elder patriots, to restore this Union as it was under the Constitution as it is.

The Journal admits that the right to vote is guaranteed by both the State and Federal Constitutions, but still advocates the doetrine that Provost Marsha's and a military dictator must be turned loose upon the free people of this State and punish them for ex ereising that right: You had as well tell a man he may eat to preserve his life, but that rebel regiments down South; that the arming if he does he shall be immediately shot. It is a gross, wicked and shocking abuse of the very constitutional rights which the Journal admits the free people of this State to have.

Grosser ignorance in a high office was never exhibited than by Hon, Wm. Whiting. Solicitor of the War Department, in calling shals will know, by whether they vote for him Hanuibal a negro. Hanuibal was a Car.hagenian, a Moor-the race which first introduced the slavery of Ethiopians into Europe as slaves. He had as well ascribe the glories of Washington to the race of the Wampanoags.

RECAPITULATION.

Wickliffe's Letter of 1861 and the Louisville Journal. I wish to be distinctly understood upon this subject. Should the present war assume the purpose and design of the abolition of ine purpose and design of the aboutton of slavery in the States, or of depriving a State of any constitutional right, it will receive no support from me of either men or money; on the contrary, my firm and decided opposition. Adjutant General Thomas has published an ecount of his expedition down the Missis sippi, organizing negro regiments, giving plan-tations to pegro laborers, and in similar occu-pations. We make an extract from this docuniest, which a cotemporary rightly characterizes as a "shameless confession:"
"I was compelled to speak to the troops along the route, speaking one day some seven or eight times. During my tour I met with an Irish regiment, the Ninetieth Elinois, from Chiergo—men who read the Chiergo Times. Chiego—men who read the Chicago Times. After talking to them a while, I proposed three cheers for the President of the United States. These were given heartily. Three cheers were then proposed for the settled policy of the United States with regard to the negrees. This was met with cries of 'No! ne!' The Colonel was absent, and the Lieutenant Colonel was in command. I inquired what such a conduct meant? The Lieutenant Colonel endeavored to excu e the men by saying that they had no opportunity to think over that they had no opportunity to think over the matter. I replied, 'You are not telling the truth, sil! I know they have been discussing this question for a week past. I know pluck and rake the lead is this matter? Time the fact if you do not.' The ellieer was considerably mortified. I ord red those who were opposed to the policy of the Government to step forward, and said I knew that the regiment had seen considerable service autoget well, but I also knew that there was but little discipline observed among them; that I wanted a distinct recognition of this doctrine—that was the point with me. Several stepped forward. They were instantly seized and sent to the guard honse.

A TRUE ACCOUNT OF THE TANKEE AT VICASBURG. "I then left the regiment, telling them I would give them a week to consider what they would do. At the next station I met the Colonel of the regiment, who begged that I would leave the matter in his hands, and h would see that the men were taught the duty of soldiers. When I reached Memphis I was aken sick. When I afterwards got up to Louisville I was shown a long ar icle from the Chicago Times, written by a Captain of the Nineticth Illinois, who was not on the ground at the time of their insubordinate misconduct at the time of their insubordinate misconduct, but who saw fit to write a very insubordinate article in reference to what he heard I had said, and in which he terribly distanted the facts. He was, of course, dishonorably dismissed from the service."

This is worthly of a little consideration.

1. Although it is not probable that in this regiment there were twenty men who had voted for Mr. Lincoln, they all heartily cheered for the Precident of the United States, the Chief Magistrate of the natios.

2. When called upon to cheer for the negro policy of the Administration, they said "No.

352 was told by the Adjutant General that he was 82 a liar. This it seems, cogsiderably "mortified" a list. This, it seems, considerably "mortified" the Lieutenant Colonel, at which we are no greatly astonished. 3. The mas ordered the men who were op-

os. Inchas ordered the men who were op-posed to the "negro policy of the Govern-ment" to step forward, at the same time re-marking that the regiment "had seen consid-erable service and fought well," but as it was (so it seemed) more important that the men should cheer for the nigger policy than "fight well," those who stepped forward in obedi-ence to Gen. Thomas' call, were "instantly se'zed and sent to the guard house." 4. A captain of the regiment wrote an ac-count of what occurred to a Chicago paper, for which "he was of course dishonorably dis-missed the service." If he represented the facts any worse than Gen. Thomas himself presents them, possibly he deserved his And yet, while we find an official emissary And yet, while we find an efficial emissary of the Cabinet making such statements as these, we are constantly told of the unadmity of the soldiers in favor of "the negro policy of the Government." The communication of Gen. Thomas gives a clue to this boasted nanimity. "Instant selzure" and the "guardhouse" for the private, "dishonorable dismissal from the service" for the efficer—these are the penalties for refusing to throw up the hat for the "settled negro policy of the Govern—

So this war makes us rich, does it? Oh so this war makes us rich, does it? On, yes! those who glory in contracts and fat offices, or in cotton, among whom there are also honest men and many great therees, with or without shoulder straps. In New York alone one landred and fity wholesale houses are pointed out, the owners of which have become millionning through the war. have become millionaires through the war, and are now reveling in a luxury as the world has never before seen. These gentlemen, of course, would not make any objition if the war were to continue three year more. It is also correct that business brisk In the great centur of commerce, trade and manufactures, at leas, in cert branches. But the people—the country large—how are they to make riches by war? Perhaps by the destruction of citie and virlages and farm-houges, of bridges an railroads, and smiling cort-fields? Have we perhaps, grown rich here in M.ssouri, wher districts in which, for a dis ance of fireside shows where there was formerly human habitation? Is the country growing rich by the fact that one million of strong laboring men carry muskets, instead of their tools of agriculture, profession, art or trade: Or is the country enriched by having its youth killed off on the battle fields, by having lest already, by sword, bullets and sickness, 500, 6,490 000 producers—this country so thinly populated at the best! Is it not a real insult to sound common sense and to humanity that ome persons want to agenre the thousands and thousands of poor soldiers, widows and orphuns of this country, that they are growing rich and prosperous because in New York, Boston and Philadelphia and Chicago—not in St. Louis—rich people build ships and palaces enough? The Anzeiger is a Republican paper of the blackest Etripe.

The Colone! then examined their guns and found one that had not snapped his cap. He turned to a sergeant and said, "Sergeant, put this man in the guard-house. I guess I shalt have to shoot him too!" I tell you Jim Montgomery is not to be trifled with by negroes.

THE NECESSITY FOR CALLING OUT THE MILITIA The Columbia Times thinks that, in view of the threatening aspect of affairs in the West, we need, instead of the 8,000 men from West, we need, instead of the 8,000 men from Georgia, demanded by the requisition of President Divis, at least 20,000 men to-day to repet the rolls which will soon be upon us, ravaging our hemes and destroying our means of subsistence. "Every man in the Confederacy," says the Times, "from sixteen to fif y-five, except the physically infirm, should be a soldier, and must be if we would win the fight. The Yankoe papers have it that they captured at Vicksburg 31,000 prisoners, among whom were one Lieutenant Genral, four Major Generals, and fourteen Brigadier Generals, as well as one bundred and lifty pieces of artillery, and 30,000 stand of arms. This account is the most exaggerated one of the war. A Confederate officer, on the staff of one of the Generals included in the capitulation, furnishes the following account of what really was captured: First, the entire force captured will not reach above 23,000; secondly, there were only three Major Generals captured, that no disloya person will be allowed to vote, as the election on the 3d of Angust; and, whereas, the military power of the Generals the only force that can default bis attempt, the State of Kentneky is hereby decrived under martial law, and all military officers are commanded to all the constitutes of the laws and of the purity of suffrage, as defined in the late proclamation of the General to interfere with the proper expression of public opinion, all discretion in the condnet of the election on the 3d of Angust; and, whereas, the military power of the Generals law, whereas, the military power of the Generals law, whereas, the military power of the General Law and, whereas, the military power of the General Law, and all military power commanded to all the constitutes of the State in the support of the laws and of the purity of suffrage, as defined in the late proclamation of the Issue in the support of the laws and of the purity of denteral purity of the laws and of the purity of the constitutes of the laws and of the purity of the constitutes of the laws and of the purity of the constitutes of the laws and of the state in the support of the laws and of the state in the support of the laws and of the laws and of the support of the laws and of the purity of ficers are commanded to all the constitutes of the laws and of the state in the support of the laws and of the laws and of the support of the laws and of the laws and of the laws and of the laws Stevenson. The Brigadier Generals were as fellows: Brigadier Generals Herbert, Moore, Lee, Shoup, Vaughn, Bowen, Baldwin, Cammings, and Bulord, making a total of nine Brigadiers, and not forrieen, as the Yankess state. The captured artillery will not exceed ninety pieces at the utmost, and of these nine-rights of loyal citizens, and the freedom of election. ty a great many are nufit for use. The num-ber of small arms captured was large, for the reason that we had gained large numbers from the enemy during the siege. On the 224 of May, after their repulse, they left their dead in front of our ranks, and on Sunday, the 24th, we requested them to permit us to bury their dead. During the truce all the arms lying lu front of our lines were pleked up and brought in. They numbered several thousand, and added greatly to the number of arms in our possession. The total amount captured from us must be about 40,000.

THE MURDER OF MR. R. R. WILLIAMS. We published some days ago an account of the mirder of R. R. Williams, of Powhatau county, Va. Later intelligence has been re-ceived, from which it appears that the morder was committed by the negroes of Mr. Wil-liame, just as he was in the act of rising from his supper. The shot was fired from a Missis-slppl rifle, taking effect in his breast, passing through his body, and striking the plate of his little daughter at the table. The rifls was stolen from a plekst-guard stationed near his house. Mr. Williams lived only a few minntes, and died without the least spspiclon of the character of the assassins. Suspicion was first attached to deserters, but upon further examination a number of his negroes were arrested, and they have since acknowledged their guilt. They assign no cause for the commission of their crime.—[Richmond Whig,

World's Fair, London, 1863 .- The high est premium has been awarded for the Wheel-er & Wilson Sewing Machines at the World's Fair, recently held in London, England, with all other sewing machines in competition. This result was not unexpected of course, but is still highly complimentary to American genius, and a triumph more noteworthy con-Adering the public sentiment in England. This marked recognition of this machine not only adds to its pressige, confirming, as it does, the numerous wards here, but should satisfy the public that if any sewing is done Wheeler & Wilson's is the machine to do it.

We believe that home enterprise should be fostered by every community, even when the results obtained may not be quite equal to those obtained elsewhere, but when we can do better at home than abroad there is every reason why we should patronize local industry and unterprise. In this connection we notice the unexpected success of the shirt unannfactory of Messrs, Green & Green, of this city. Though it has been in operation only about eight mouths it already gives emologment to about thirry hands. They turn out better work than can be bought in the stores, and their shirts are made from measure aud warranted to fit.

In a speech at Carboudale yesterday, he said he had no disposition to diseuss politics, for he was not a politician, and thanked God for it. He only wanted to consider what was for the good of the couplry, and when the war was over we can ask who is the villian. The house is on fire and we must put it out. He showed who began the war—that the procedury was forced at every aten to take the measures he had, and yet some cried uncon-stitut onal. We fought the Mexicans because they made war on the Government, and hat war was constitutional, why was not this. lie ridiculed sentimentalism—those who objected to the war because it was agalust our brethren. He was no apologist for the President, but would stand by bim lu ail his efforts to put down the rebellion, even if he sent clephants South to trample them down. The President was empowered to raise armics, and that was sufficient. If this war was unconstitutional Jeff Davis must be right. We must be for our country, right or wrong.

The man who is not fer this Government would hat Heaven if he lived in it. He showed how ridiculous was the peace cry, and and the only ways or sin near was to so ind.

He speke for three hours, completely carry-ing his andience with him, and many times affecting them to tears by his manly and tearty deferse of our brave soldiers.

General Logau addressed about six thousand persons here to-day. He was enthusias-tirally received and applauded throughout. He talks like a man in downright curnest, He talks like a man in downright earnest, who cares nothing for party, but who is intensely interested in the weifare of the country. The drift of his speech was similar to that delivered at Carbondale yesterday. He argues that it is the duty of every one to stand by the Government. He most unmercifully scores all sympathizers with the rebelline, and those who find so much fault with the President, the army and the war, and everything else except Jeff Davis & Co. He argues that the constitutionality of those who see so much that is unconstitutionality of those who see so much that is unconstitutionality of secessionism and the acts of the rebellion; and shows that they don't know what they goal they will favor the prosecution of the war; if not, they, will find all manner of excuses. the profecution of the war, if not, they, will find all manner of excuses. If men oppose the war it must be because they fear their friends will get hurt.

Some objected because soldiers committed depredations. When we started from Bruineburg for Jickson and Vichsburg with five rations, and fought five battles, and were reduced to one cracker a piece, and the men hungry and footsore, he told them to help themselves, and whenever his troops got into such position they should have what they could get. The rebels do the same—gather everything, even to negroes, to keep us from getting any—but you rever hear of that being wrong.

He Insisted that all should be for their country, right or wrong, and that people should give the soldiers their sympathy and support. [It is impossible to do Gen. Logan justice in our telegraphic report.]

At the close of his speech the following resolutions were presented by Gen. Haynic and unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That we will stand by the constitutional authorities of the country in their efforts to maintain, preserve and perpetuate the Union and Constitution at whatever cust, and against whatever power, domestic or foreign, that may assall it; and that although we deplore the calamities of civil war, yet all the States must be restored to the Union, the laws must be executed alike all over the country, and peace must be seenred by victory until the last rebel lays down his arms.

Resolved, That we tender to all our bray: and gallant soldiers, from highest to lowest, our warmest sympathles and acknowledge our gratitude to them for their heroism, their sacrifices, and for imperishable renown shed upon our arms by their glorions deeds. Arrival of Morgan and his Men at the Penitentiary-The Disposition Made of Them.

[Special Dispatch to the Cincinnati Gazette.] COLUMBUS, O., July 30. John Morgan and twenty-eight of his command reached here this afternoon, and were immediately taken to the Ohio pententiary, where they will remain until further orders. Fourteen are commissioned, and fifteen noncommissioned officers and privates. After General Meson had handed the prisoners over to the officers of the penitentiary they were searched, in accordance with the rules of the institution to which they submitted without searched, in accordance with the rules of the institution, to which they submitted without any grumbling, except in two or three cases. Morgan bimself emptied his pockets with as much grace and ease as he could command. He had several hundred dollars with him, mostly in greenbacks.

As fast as prisoners were examined, they were taken to a bath housn, and after a thorough ablintion they were conducted to their cells, where they will be confined subject to the rules of the pententiary, which will pre-vent them from taiking with each other. The prisoners seem not to have been aware what disposition was to be made of them until they were in sight of the prison. Some of them were much downess at the prospect of serving an indefinite term there, while others were not at all affected, but on the contrary were joking with each other as to what trade they would learn. The warden will treat them as other prisoners are treated. They will be closely guarded by detachments from the Provost Guard, which will reader it impossible for them to escape. One fellow who was searched had a watch concealed in his pantaloons leg between the lining and the cioth. As we expected, the fickle Cumberland has taken a notion to rise again. Since the rain commencer falling—Wednerday evening—the river has been rising, and four or five feet have already been add rade to intercept and catch them. Prisoners are being sent in hourly. A train of wagons and 5,000 inlantry under Buckner were reported at London yesterday, but the story was believed by no one.

The presence of some wagons to convey the expected plunder, and a few hundred conscipts, may be true. Pegram' is not in the State. Scott's numbers are estimated at from 1,50 to 2,00, wi'r com seven to une plees of artiliery, two o' them being those of Konkle's, left by Saunders at Cumberland Mountain. We lost at Richr and one killed and five wounded and one wounded at Winchester. The rebels pillaged recklessly wherever they went, sacked stores and houses, stole and sent to the rear all the horses, males and cattle they could get. Gilbert and Carter's forces being infantry, gave up the chase. If Saunders don't catch them he will at least drive them out, and not leave them until he does.
